

What is happening at Hanwell Fields?

Term 3

Year Group		Topic	What are we reading?	Maths Investigation Focus	Science	Computing	Getting Creative	Spiritual, moral, social, cultural education and PSHE	Visits and Visitors	End of term celebration
Key Stage One	Year 1	New World Explorers	The Little Boat Kathy Henderson	Solving Mathematical Problems	Identifying and sorting materials.	Programming Using BeeBots to input commands and de-bug our processes.	Explore the Planet Suite by Holst, creating our own planets and painting them.	Family Links Making choices Principles and symbols in Buddhism	None planned this term	Friday 13th February A celebration of your child's work this term.
	Year 2	The Wonderful World of Creative Ability	Harry Potter JK Rowling		Investigating Materials Developing investigative skills in experiments.	Programming Carrying out a coding project to make short animations.	Developing drawing skills to create portraits. Composing short pieces of collaborative music.	Family Links Circle time. Leaders and teachers in Christianity and Islam.	Harry Potter evening 5th February (optional)	Thursday 12th February at 3.15. Sharing computing and art work.
Key Stage Two	Year 3	Myths and Monsters	A selection of Greek Myths		Living Things	Writing computer code	Designing and creating a mythical beast	Inspirational People	Forest School	tbc
	Year 4	Whatever the Weather	Interpreting a variety of picture books including Window Jeanie Baker		Sound How it is made and how it travels.	Programming and de-bugging Creating algorithms	Investigating the work of Van Gough, with a particular focus on Starry Night.	Discussing Philosophical questions for children to reflect on, discussing their views of the world. Jesus and his Parables.	Rhiannon Llewellyn Opera singer to demonstrate the power of sound.	Presentation of our news reports at the end of term!
	Year 5	The Smashing Saxons	My Dad's a Birdman David Almond Beowulf		Lifecycles of animals and plants.	Programming Learning how to code using 2code on Purple Mash.	Creating our own Anglo-Saxon settlements and investigating jewellery and armour of the period.	Reflecting on daily challenged that we might meet and how ambition can help us to overcome them. Buddhism	Anglo-Saxon theme day Date to be confirmed	Bringing the world of the Anglo-Saxons to life. Friday 13th February 1.30pm
	Year 6	Exiled to Unknown Lands	Doomspell Cliff McNish		Classification and Adaptation Link to Computing – creating databases.	Programming Creating computer games in two formats and comparing the coding process.	Creating Landscapes, focussing on the terminology when constructing and creating depth.	Focus on WE Day and the impact that we can make on the world through small changes. Stories with messages.	None planned this term.	Games afternoon Friday 13th February 1.30pm