Name: Sarah Horbury-Jakeman

Governor Role: Safeguarding and Pupil Outcomes

About me:

My name is Sarah Horbury-Jakeman and I am a co-opted Governor.

I am a local Head Teacher at another Banbury primary school but have a real commitment for improving outcomes for all our children in the town. I have a particular interest and passion for Hanwell Fields as my nephew attends Hanwell Fields in Year 3 and I live in a nearby Village.

I believe strongly in the high quality education that Hanwell Fields provides it's children and being Banbury born and bred I feel connected to our community and understand the challenges we all face, but am also incredibly proud of all we have achieved too. I am excited to be part of the school's journey to become 'outstanding.'
